Event: Presentation of the book "Cajal: Neuron Theory or Reticular Theory?"
Venue: Nobel Forum, Karolinska Institute, Stockholm
Date: March 12 | Time: 15:00 – 16:45

15:00 – 15:10 | Welcome and Opening Remarks

- Welcome to the Karolinska Institute
- Welcome address and introduction of H.E. The Ambassador of Spain,

15:10 – 15.40

- Prof. Javier DeFelipe (Instituto Cajal, CSIC), Editor of the book.
    - Book overview: "Cajal: Neuron Theory or Reticular Theory?"
    - The historical context of the Neuron Doctrine and key insights into the scientific debate that defined modern neuroscience.

15:40 – 16.00 |

- Prof. Sten Grillner, (Karolinska Institutet).
  "Deliberations of the Nobel Committee 1901 to 1906 leading up to the Nobel prize to Cajal and Golgi 1906".

. 16:05– 16:35

- Open dialogue between Prof. DeFelipe, Prof. Grillner, and the audience.
- Moderator: Dr. Xesús M. Abalo, Project Coordinator KTH and President of ACES.

16:35 – 16:45 | Closing Remarks

- H.E. The Ambassador of Spain in Sweden